Launched in September 2010, the Amsterdam Research Centre for Gender and Sexuality (ARC-GS) promotes gender and sexuality studies within the social sciences at the University of Amsterdam, in the Netherlands and beyond. Aside from facilitating research synergies, its educational mission involves encouraging and valorising advanced social science students working in the field. The 2020 ARC-GS Prize will award the best gender and/or sexuality studies master thesis in the social scientific disciplines in the Netherlands. Graduates from all over the country are encouraged to apply.

Conditions to qualify

- You have completed your master programme in the social sciences (sociology, anthropology, political science, geography, economics, history) at a Dutch university;
- Your thesis must have been completed between 31 October 2019 and 31 October 2020;
- Your thesis can be written in English or in Dutch;
- Your thesis must be based on theoretically informed empirical research carried out independently;
- Gender and/or sexuality must be a central element of your research focus;
- Your obtained thesis grade should be 8 or higher.

How to proceed

- Provide two (double-sided) printed copies of your thesis to:
  Robert Davidson
  AISSR/REC B8.01
  PO Box 15718
  1001 NE Amsterdam

- Send a pdf version of your thesis to arcgs@uva.nl

- Enclose a grade transcript or certificate from your home university indicating your thesis grade and the number of ECs for which the thesis counts.

Deadline for submissions: 14 November 2020

The amount of the prize is €500.

For more information, contact arcgs@uva.nl or visit: http://arcgs.uva.nl/thesis-prize

Please distribute widely